

Michele Reitman is the Director of Weddings for Little Stone Church of Mackinac Island, Michigan. Her responsibilities include the promotion and scheduling of weddings & vow renewals. Proceeds from these events support community outreach programs financially supported by Little Stone Church, including programs both on and off the island. In this role, Michele works directly with applicants wishing to celebrate their wedding and/or vow renewal at Little Stone Church – along with coordinating these ceremonies with the Church's minister, music director and other various committees. In addition, Michele assists in the administration of the Church's website.

Michele has been a summer resident of Mackinac Island for over 30 years – and, has recently become a year-round member of the Island community. Prior to raising a family of three children (who enjoyed every summer of their childhood on the Island – and, continue to do so), Michele was an executive secretary in the automotive industry. Over the years, she and her husband have been active in many Island organizations.
